

1st TPM –Transnational project meeting 15-16 September 2021, Niš, Serbia

The first transnational meeting of the project "BRIGHT - Boosting scientific excellence and innovation capacity of 3D printing methods in pandemic period " was took place in Niš, Serbia from 15th to 16th of September 2021 . The event was hosted by the University of Niš (UNI), Serbia.

The event was on-site attended by representatives of the 5 partners: Technical University of Cluj-Napoca (UTCN) - Romania, University of Nis (UNI) – Serbia, Sveuciliste Jurja Dobrile u Puli (UNIPU) – Croatia, BM Plast doo – Croatia and Bizzcom s.r.o. – Slovakia. Due to Covid 19 restrictions for business travelling, two partners were virtualy attended the meeting - Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava (STU) – Slovakia and Politechnika Poznanska (PUT) – Poland.

In total, xxx representatives of the BRIGHT partners were participated on the 1st Transnational Proeject Meeting of the BRIGHT project.

The event was successfully realized following adopted Agenda for the meeting. The short content and joint conclusions of the meeting was presented in Minutes of meeting.

The members of the BRIGHT project collaborate to produce high quality reports, which are posted on the project site: <https://bright-project.eu/> You will find updates and details on project implementation phases supported by EU funded program ERASMUS +.

BRIGHT project - Boosting the scientific excellence and innovation capacity of 3D printing methods in pandemic period

Contact:

Project manager: Assoc. Prof. Razvan Pacurar (razvan.pacurar@mdm.utcluj.ro)

Address: Cluj-Napoca, Technical University, B-dul Muncii, Nr. 103-105, Cluj-Napoca, ROMANIA

